I shall not pass this way
again
Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man,
Let me do it while I can
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way
again.

CHARITY JOHNSON CAINS

June 1, 1892

December 25, 1989

Our beloved sister, Charity has finally caught that chariot that she so often sang about softly to herself. On Monday morning, December 25, 1989 around 8:30 a.m., she departed this life.

Charity Johnson Cains was born to Cecile and Jimmie Johnson, on June 1, 1892. Under their guidance she attended church regularly and was baptized at an early age at St. Mary Baptist Church, where she served for many years after which, she united with St. John's Baptist Church, Rev. A. Joseph, Pastor. Then in 1962, she reunited with St. Mary Baptist Church, where she remained a faithful servant until death summoned her to eternal rest.

She joined in Holy Matrimony to Pink Bethel Cains. To this union 8 children were born; 3 girls and 5 boys: Cecile Cains, who died in infancy, Gracie Mae Cains, who died in infancy, Cilsteann C. Doomes, Leo Cains who died in infancy, Edward Cane, Pink Bethel Cane, Jr., Freddie Cains and Wilson Cain.
